

As I zoomed down the road, I could feel the wind hitting my face and my hair flying wildly all over my head.

Jimmy looked out over the overgrown yard with disgust as he leaned over to crank up the engine.

When the power went out, I could not see my hand in front of my face.

The mother bird flew down and snatched up the worm into her beak and flew up toward the nest.

Carefully, Annie held the tool and got ready to pound the nail into the board.

When morning came we looked out of the window to see drifts and piles that came all the way up to the top step.

Carlos felt himself shaking as the coach handed him the Most Valuable Player trophy and shook his hand.

The monkeys swung on their tree limbs, the elephants sprayed themselves with water, and the lions roared loudly.

Sara began to cry when she opened up her report card.

LOCATION: Where did it take place?
What is the setting?

AGENT: What is the occupation or job?
What is the character's purpose?

TIME: What time of the day is this?

ACTION: What is happening here?
What is taking place?

INSTRUMENT/OBJECT: What is being used?
What is the object?

CAUSE - EFFECT: What has happened?
What caused this to happen?

FEELINGS / ATTITUDE: What feelings can you see here?
What is the mood of this text?

CATEGORY: What group of people or things is this sentence referring to?

PROBLEM-SOLUTION: What is the problem here?
What might be a solution?